[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO MAY 30.

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE

The Insurgent Band Suppressed

LONDON, May 29.—The Times' special says Favre and Simon are likely to be replaced.

The Bavarian General at Champaigny asked passports for insurgent officers at Vincennes. Vinoy referred him to the text of the Convention. Vinoy is appointed Governor of Paris.

Among hostages shot are Darbois, Degnerry, Jesuit Fathers Ducondray, Clair, Olivan, Canbout, Bangy, Abbe Alard, Danker, Jecker and twenty five gen d'armes. The last band of insurgents was crushed yesterday in the cemetery of Port la Chossy. Three thousand prisoners arrived yesterday. The disarming of Nationals is proceeding. Multitudes are arrested.

A General Massacre

PARIS, May 29.—Fighting at Mendon, Belleville and La Chaise was desperate. No quarter was given to men, women or child.

Military law is established and executions are progressing in Champs de Mars, Park au Monceaux and Hotel de Ville. Fifty to a hundred at one time were shot. None are permitted to leave without McMahon's signature.

Nearly every member of the Commune is shot or executed as taken.

Provisions are scarce.

The Western and Orleans lines open to day to goods and traffic. Exit to persons is forbidden.

General Details from Paris

NEW YORK, May 29.—A Versailles correspondent telegraphs that M. Delescluse, Minister of War under the defunct Commune was shot by his guards and instantly killed on Saturday night in attempting to escape.

Trials of Communist leaders taken alive commence during the week. Conviction is inevitable. It is generally believed that every one will suffer death.

After a desperate and bloody conflict the government troops succeeded in capturing the insurgents' positions at Belleville and Pont La Chaise late on Saturday night. Firing then ceased and yesterday morning our troops advancing upon the position yet held by the Communists the insurgents hoisted a white flag and surrendered in a body.

Thirty-eight regiments of the line belonging to McMahon's army returned to Versailles in triumph, flying a magnificent banner of the Republic, captured from the Communists.

It is proposed as a temporary measure to divide the Capital into twenty military districts, each to be strongly garrisoned. This arrangement will be maintained until order is completely restored and the passions aroused by the insurrection disappear. Owing to the admirable plan adopted by McMahon for storming the barricades held by the Communists, his troops did not suffer heavily. During the seven days fighting in the streets the loss to the army altogether was 2 895, while according to the most reliable estimates the loss of the insurgents is fifteen times as great.

It is stated on good authority that among the unfortunate persons held as hostages in prison in La Roquet, who were murdered were ten nuns.

On Saturday the insurgent prisoners at Tartary made a desperate effort to escape. They set fire to the straw given them to sleep on, and in the confusion that followed broke out of the flames. Sixty two effected their escape. Twenty four have been recaptured.

The French Government will ask extradition of all Communist chiefs who have taken refuge in England, as under the French law they are regarded as criminals, who come within the terms of the extradition treaty.

A dispatch from Paris last night says firemen from Antwerp are now arriving in Paris.

The fire in the Hotel de Ville has been extinguished.

Paschal and Grousett, two principal leaders of the insurrection are not to be discovered. It is believed they are alive and hiding.

Since 8 o'clock last evening the entire city may be said to have been in the hands of the Versaillists.

Priests and cabs have been again making their appearance on the streets.

This morning the firing had ceased. Communists and the great rebellion gave its last gasp. The remnant of the insurgents have laid down their arms and the drama is over.

Ten thousand prisoners are now passing through Rue Lafayette, most of them bareheaded with their uniform inside out. Among them are 2,000 regulars who went over to the insurgents at the outset of the rebellion.

Additional Dispatches from Europe,

VERSAILLES, May 29.—In the Assembly to day Changarnier defended Bazaine and the capitulation of Metz. The Legislature announced that all capitulations made during the war would be investigated by a council of war.

Remnants of the insurrection consisting of a few scattering bands who have taken refuge at Bois de Vincennes were surrendered to day.

BRUSSELS, May 29.—There are reports of the discovery of letters from leading members of the Paris Commune disclosing a conspiracy against the Government of Belgium. A plot was formed for insurgents escaping from Paris to proceed to Brussels, where the radical movement will be continued and insurrection incited, buildings set on fire and the horrors of Paris repeated.

BERNE, May 29.—The Federal Council has decided in regard to the extradition of Communist refugees that an investigation is necessary in each case. Only those will be delivered to the French authorities who are proved guilty of ordinary crimes.

VIENNA, May 29.—The naturalization treaty between Austria and the United States, signed last September, has been ratified by the Reichsrath and will be submitted to the Hungarian Diet on the 24th day of June. A year is allowed by the treaty for the exchange of ratifications.

CANADA.

Dispatch from Toronto

TORONTO, May 29.—An Ottawa correspondent of the Leader says no explanation will be given why Sir John Young signs the treaty after it has been signed by England.

Dispatch from Ottawa.

OTTAWA, May 29.—Hugh Allen has been awarded the contract for carrying the mails between Halifax, Cork and Liverpool on the same terms as were made before.

Dispatch from Montreal

MONTREAL, May 29.—The Canadian Executive is going to exercise the same privileges as the Queen herself in ratifying the treaty of Washington, without asking consent of Parliament. This is presumed to be final as far as regards the fisheries, but legislation may be required to open canals. All of this is for the best for two reasons. First any addition of international difficulty is better than the arbitration of war. Second, the Dominion will gain, we hope, by all she concedes as well as by all she acquires through the treaty. There are certainly various points in which we might justly have claimed more, but on the whole the treaty we think is a happy solution of a complication of difficulties.

WASHINGTON CITY

Heavy Tax on a Corporation

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Commissioner Pleasanton has decided that the New York Central Railroad Company must pay five per cent. taxes upon their scrip dividend and directs Collector Bailey to proceed at once to collect $1 151,800, the original amount assessed without penalty.

Internal revenue receipts to day were $607 201.

Subscriptions to the new loan to day, up to noon, were $200 000.

The Coal Mine Horror

PITTSTON, PA., May 29.—Every man taken out of the pit alive yesterday is out of danger. Most of them can live but a few hours and some are already dead. The plan by which the mine was supplied with air was destroyed and the men who were behind the barricades and taken out alive, were so long without fresh air that their injuries were decided by physicians to be fatal.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—The friends of Gov Haight figure up a much larger vote for him than the press generally has conceded to him, and are very confident that his chances for renomination are number one.

John Brown's family have sent back $100 raised for them in Massachusetts, and desire it to be generally known that they are comfortably provided for, not being in need of assistance of any kind.

The rain yesterday was sufficient to damage considerably the hay fields around the Bay.

There has been a marked improvement in the wholesale grocery and provision trade within the past week.

James Murray Mitchell, a blacksmith, in a fit of delirium tremens to-day, cut his throat, jumped from the window of a house near Lone Mountain and ran to a well and drowned himself.

The children confirmed in St Mary's Cathedral yesterday number 400.

The report received via New York that Manuel Asperoz was coming from the City of Mexico to take the position of Consul General for the Pacific coast, is not confirmed by direct advices from Mexico by steamer.

The conductors and employees of the various city railroads have made up a purse of $400 for the widow and orphans of Wm. O'Hearn, the driver who was killed last week, by the San Jose train colliding with his car.

Beach, the juror in the Fair case who is charged with misconduct by the defense as a basis for the application for a new trial has made a counter affidavit and others corroborating it will be made. It is rumored that the affidavits charging him with expressing an opinion before the trial against the defendant contain an error of fact and date which will militate seriously against their creditability.

Mrs Fair's sentence is deferred until Thursday. The reading of affidavits to support the application for a new trial will be commenced in Chambers before Judge Dwinelle to morrow.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

FAIRFIELD, May 29.—The Democratic primary election held to day for electing delegates to the State Convention passed off quietly, resulting in a unanimous vote for Haight.

TEHAMA, May 29.—The Republican primary election to day resulted in the election of delegates pledged to support Booth for Governor. The Democratic delegation from this county is pledged for Haight.

POLITICAL NOTES

The local elections in Kentucky have resulted very satisfactorily to the Republicans. Several cities were wrested from the Democrats, and in others the Republican vote was largely increased. Lexington, Frankfort, Paris, Danville, Harrodsburg and Nicholasville elected Republican officers.

In the Taxpayers' Convention of South Carolina, the other day, Mr. Trenholm, formerly a member of Jeff Davis' Cabinet not only accepted universal suffrage as an accomplished fact, but he spoke of it as an inevitable step to the progress of the age, and asserted that all civilized nations are tending toward universal suffrage in spite of the resistance of monarchs and privileged classes and that it is time all should acknowledge the wisdom of the principle.

A correspondent of the New York Herald has had a conversation with Gov Caldwell of North Carolina about the Ku Klux. The Governor told him that the published accounts of the Ku Klux outrages were by no means exaggerated; that the eastern counties were pretty quiet, but that many of the western ones were in a dreadful condition. He received letters almost every day from some point or other, telling him of this man whipped or that man shot or hanged. The Democrats visited by the same correspondent acknowledged the outrages of the Ku Klux.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune writes from New Haven concerning the Democratic fraud in the Connecticut elections: "Aside from the general good effect which the position of the Legislature insures, there has come out of it one convincing conclusion, long suspected by many, that in no election since Gov. English became a candidate, has there been a fair election. There is no reasonable doubt that in the Fourth Ward of New Haven, there has been an overcount of at least 100 every year, and if in that ward, a close and fairly respectable one, such a fraud could be committed, what can be thought of the Fifth Ward in that city, where the Democrats have returned a vote of 1,200 to 120, or thereabouts, cast for the Republican candidate? 'A sporting man' in the city, who understands every move of the gamblers, informs me that men of his class have long understood that the election of English depended upon the success of frauds in New Haven, that the confidence of betting men this year was wholly due to their knowledge of what could be done there to make the success of the Democratic party certain. But a discovery of a part of the rascality was sufficient to spoil the whole game. There is no doubt that further investigation would have brought worse doings to light. Everybody familiar with elections in Connecticut knows that for several years New Haven has been the very last place heard from. The count in Hartford, where there are seven wards—only one less than in New Haven—has been concluded by 8 o'clock, while frequently it has been nearly midnight before reports came in from that city. The explanation is that Tammany tactics have been practiced there. A knowledge of how the rest of the State was going has given the New Haven managers a cue to what must be expected from them and they have done their rascally work each year. And they would have continued it but for the timely action of the Legislature in establishing a 'precedent'—that frauds cannot win."

Minister Washburne in Paris

Every observant American may well feel proud of the course pursued by Mr. Washburne, the American Minister to France, since the commencement of the war. During the first few weeks of the war he was engaged in protecting the Germans in Paris who were ordered to leave the country, and who, in many instances, were very harshly treated by the French people. At a later stage in the contest he extended aid and protection in various ways to both foreigners and the French in their sufferings during and after the siege. Throughout the war he faithfully represented the American Republic in its intercourse with the French people. Recently he has been earnestly appealed to from many sources to intervene in behalf of Monseigneur Darboy, the Archbishop of Paris, who was imprisoned by the Commune as a hostage. The Washington Chronicle, in speaking of this subject, says:

"Permission was given to visit the Archbishop freely at any time. Taking advantage of the permission, the Minister, in company with his Secretary, visited the prison and after being shown into a vacant cell the Archbishop was soon brought in. Mr. Washburne was deeply touched by the appearance of the venerable man, and told him he had taken great pleasure at the instance of some of his faithful friends in intervening in his behalf, and while he could not promise himself the satisfaction of seeing him released he was very glad to be able to visit him, to ascertain his wants and to assuage the cruel position in which he was placed. The Archbishop expressed his thanks most heartily and cordially for the interest the Minister had manifested toward him, and Mr. Washburne was charmed with his cheerful spirit and interesting conversation. He seemed to fully appreciate his critical condition and to be prepared for the worst. Mr. Washburne was the first man he had seen from the outside since his imprisonment and he had not been permitted to see the newspapers or to have any intelligence of passing events."

Mr. Washburne did all he could to effect the release of the Archbishop, but the Archbishop has since been murdered.

Robert Toombs, in his lecture in Augusta, Ga., urged his hearers to make no compromise, to have nothing to do with men who talk of dead issues and accepting the situation, and to make a square fight of it now and hereafter.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

THE CIVIL WAR IN FRANCE.

Dispatches from Versailles

VERSAILLES, May 30.—The inhabitants of Belleville have openly announced that they will make reprisals, and a secret system of arson and assassination is apprehended. There are constant discoveries of stores of petroleum. The insurgents in Fort Vincennes surrendered unconditionally. The Gaulois announces that the Orleans princes are allowed to live in France.

Thiers has ordered the disarmament of Paris and the dissolution of the National Guard in the Department of the Seine. McMahon has issued a congratulatory proclamation to the army.

Paris is tranquil and trade already shows signs of reviving. Soldiers are feted by the inhabitants. Arrests of the insurgents continue.

Dispatches via London

LONDON, May 30.—The News says trains from Paris will run to morrow. The people of Brussels smashed the windows in Victor Hugo's house. Police now guard the house.

A proclamation from Marshal McMahon to the people of Paris announces their deliverance from the Communists, and that order, security and labor are about being established.

The insurgents' losses previous to May 22d, when the Versailles troops entered Paris, are estimated at 12,000 killed and wounded, and 25 000 prisoners, and since May 22d, at 10,000 killed and wounded and 20 000 prisoners. All of the prisoners were sent to Versailles.

Gen. Lacellia, with a few of his followers, fled to the castle of Vincennes, but upon the commencement of the erection of the siege works by the Versaillists, he at once surrendered.

Gen Douay officially reports to have lost forty officers and 6,000 men during all the engagements which his troops participated in since the Versaillists entered Paris.

Paris journals demand cessation of summary executions.

Several attempts were made yesterday to assassinate officers of the army.

The bodies of the murdered priests will lie in state a week.

With the exception of Pyatt and Grousset, all the Commune chiefs were killed or taken prisoners.

Further Accounts.

VERSAILLES, May 30.—The official journal of the Republic announces that the National Archives, the National Library, the National Arsenal and Museum of the Louvre are safe. The manufactory Les Gobelines and Observatorie are badly damaged.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A special correspondent of the Tribune at Paris telegraphs Monday evening: Paris looks perfectly cowed. The shops are all closed and even those of vital necessity, such as chandlers, remain shut. Restaurants, bakeries, and groceries have also suspended business. I walked across Paris last night and never saw anything so desolate. I saw no human beings but sentinels every hundred yards, and one civilian. The old revolutionary system of denunciation is going on with terrible ferocity.

Nador the aeronaut has been arrested for supposed sympathy with the Commune. Nobody is safe even in the presence of their most intimate friends. A rash word or impudent gesture by a man or woman insures instant death. Men, women and even children are seized by the brutal soldiery and shot. The saddest feature is the conduct of women, female insurgents, having in many cases been detected in firing houses of innocent persons with petroleum.

Eruption and Earthquake—600 Lives Lost.

SINGAPORE, May 25.—A volcanic eruption and earthquake have shaken the island of Rica. The country is terribly devastated and six hundred lives have been lost.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Extensive preparations are being made by rich residents for the reception of the Irish exiles. Generals Thomas F. Burke and Thomas Clarke are now on the way here. The 3d Infantry (Irish) will parade in the reception.

There is very general dissatisfaction among property holders with the assessment of benefits and damages by the construction of Montgomery Avenue from the corner of Washington and Montgomery streets to Black Point. It is probable the work of the Commissioners will be contested.

Capt Arnold, whose vessel was wrecked last year on the shore of the Okhotsk sea, N. E. Siberia, and who made his way overland through Asia and back to San Francisco via New York, starts again to morrow for the same locality with a new vessel and outfit.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—In the case of Robinson, one of the parties arrested in Congress Hall last week while witnessing a game of keno, and prosecuted under the ordinance of the Board of Supervisors making it a misdemeanor to visit gambling houses even though not engaged in playing, Judge Stanley reversed the decision of Judge Sawyer of the Police Court, holding that the ordinance is constitutional, dismissing the habeas corpus and remanding Robinson to the custody of the Sheriff. This was brought as a test case.

The inquest will be held this evening in the case of O'Hearn, the car driver killed by the San Jose train, and to morrow evening on August Kamp, the victim of "The Chicken."

CURRENT NOTES

There were 5,092 births in Boston last year, 3 462 marriages and 6 098 deaths. There was an excess of 224 males over females in the births, and an excess of 110 males in the deaths.

The San Francisco delegation to the California State Republican Convention is said to be the best delegation ever sent from the city. It is about equally divided between Booth and Selby for Governor.

The articles of incorporation of the new eastern railroad from California specify that a junction is to be made in the State of Oregon with the Oregon and California Railroad. This junction is to be made at some point immediately north of the Pitt river country.

In the Young Men's Christian Association Convention at Washington a few days ago the President read the following dispatch: "To the [illegible]: The first International Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and the British Provinces offers Her Majesty Queen Victoria heartfelt congratulations upon the auspicious return of her birthday. May peace and God dwell in her heart, and God and peace bind Great Britain and the United States in a fraternal and perpetual union."

A SPECIMEN OF DEMOCRATIC TWADDLE.—The Washington Patriot of May 21 has this item of news from Oregon:

The Eugene City (Oregon) Guard, speaking of the manner in which the Republican counties of that State are governed, says: "The Treasurer of O'Brien county is in limbo having recently got on a big drunk, squandering about $11 000 of the county's fund. This is one of the counties that did not cast a Democratic vote last fall."

This is hard on the Treasurer of O'Brien county, and still harder on the county, inasmuch as about $11,000 of its funds was squandered by the aforesaid Treasurer while on one single "big drunk." If he should get on a "big drunk" as often as some of the Democrats are in the habit of doing, it would be rather expensive for the people of that county. True there is no such county as that named and there was no election at the time stated, but the story is just as good as a majority of those which circulate through Democratic papers.—Eugene Journal.

"Horace Greeley in New Orleans" was the almost startling announcement by telegraph a few days ago, and yet he is as safe there to-day as in the streets of New York; but it cost thousands of lives and millions of treasure to make it "safe" for him to visit that city. Ten years ago had he ventured there the announcement would have been "Horace Greeley hanged to a lamp-post!"

The Free Trader is [illegible]ly disgusted with the address recently issued by Democratic members of Congress. It states that it has "read the document with feelings of deep disappointment," and that it finds it a very melancholy piece of reading. We quote further:

We had looked for a distinct declaration that the party accepts the recent constitutional amendments and considers that the work of reconstruction, although badly done, should be allowed to stand, and the absence of such a declaration in the document will do the party more harm than all the arguments contained in it will do good. The thought that we are to go into the next Presidential election on the issues of the last and fight again over Blair and the Brodhead letter is enough to make a Job tear his hair. The leaders of the Democratic party have piped the doleful tune of centralization, corruption and extravagance for at least eight years and few converts have been found to dance to it.

The New Railroad Project

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 23d May furnishes additional intelligence in regard to the new railway enterprise from California through Southern Oregon and Southern Idaho to Salt Lake. We quote from this article as follows:

Within the past ten days agents of the English and German capitalists who propose to furnish the funds, have been over the California Pacific Railroad and branches and convinced themselves of the satisfactory condition and prospects of the company. We have the most positive assurance that the entire capital stock of the company has been subscribed, and work will be commenced within a short time on the extension from Davisville northward, and the surveying of the balance of the line will be pushed vigorously, preparatory to the commencement of the construction of the road at various points. The company are of the opinion that the road can be constructed and put in working order to Ogden within two years from this date.

Railroad Matters—An Old Contest in a New Form

For some days past public attention in this city and to some extent throughout the State, has been attracted to the Elliott-Holladay controversy in regard to the Oregon and California Railroad. Of the purely personal issues we have nothing to say, they do not concern the public. But the controversy in its progress and results may greatly affect the public interest, and from the direction it is taking it is plain to any one who examines it that it is little else than an old contest revived in a new form. The people of Oregon have not forgotten the fierce controversy of just one year ago in regard to Oregon railroads when the Central Pacific Company, of California, seconded by a few men in Oregon, attempted to strike a blow at the development of the railway system of this State, and make Oregon tributary to the California corporation. It is yet fresh in the public mind how this issue was precipitated on the people of Oregon just on the eve of an important election, how a scheme was advanced which would have cut off Southern Oregon from all hope of railroad conn[illegible]s, and thrown the balance of the State into the clutches of corporations in California, how the scheme was pushed forward here by a few persons who had an interest in a land grant extending south east from Eugene city, and who hoped to make that grant valuable by securing the construction of a railroad over it, how the Herald was subsidized in this interest and made the advocate of this plan of operations which would have struck a blow at the general interests of the State and of Southern Oregon in particular. These things are all [illegible] remembered. And now that paper [illegible] entered the lists again as an advocate of [illegible] by which it is covertly intended to [illegible] the same, or a similar result. The plan is to check railway development in Oregon on the system on which it is now going forward, to embarrass the prosecution of these enterprises and finally to make the same combination which fought against the interests of Oregon a year ago master of the situation.

The people of Oregon usually take a practical view of things and judge men by what they do and measures by results. Mr. Elliott has of late brought [illegible] to embarrass railroad development in this State. He is making every possible effort, as we understand it, to stop operations on the Oregon and California road, to injure its credit, to get it into the hands of a receiver, and to [illegible] the whole enterprise. This plan, if successful would also, as a matter of course, [illegible] the west side road, and in all [illegible] prevent its construction. Now the people of Oregon have no particular [illegible] judge favorably of Mr Elliott [illegible] nothing that he has accom[illegible] State. And, from the meth[illegible] and the course in which [illegible] seems to be every reason [illegible] is backed in this matter by [illegible] of Oregon interests. For a long [illegible] in the affidavit which he [illegible] ished, he was without means [illegible] the recovery of his alleged [illegible] side railroad. He has, how[illegible] recently obtained means for that [illegible] furnished them? The indi[illegible] are very strong, that it was the Central Pacific Company of California. It is plain [illegible] company, if it can stop Oregon railroad developments at the point now [illegible] have strong hopes yet of car[illegible] the scheme about which there was [illegible] contest in our last election. That scheme is for a railroad over the so-called [illegible] with the Central [illegible] on the Humboldt. Let the progress [illegible] the Oregon and California road be stopped [illegible] the head of the [illegible] valley and the original scheme of [illegible] possible again [illegible] Southern Oregon of a [illegible] railways of this part of [illegible] hands of the Central Pacific [illegible] This is an aspect which the [illegible] years. And we find that the [illegible] a year ago was the untiring advocate [illegible] scheme now working with as much [illegible] as before on the new line of policy.

[illegible] looking to the [illegible] and give no heed to the [illegible] involved in the contro[illegible] Holladay and S G Elliott are [illegible] the Oregon public, except in [illegible] their enterprise and the results [illegible] of cause the public to have an interest in what they propose, or intend or accomplish. But if Mr. Elliott has yet done anything for Oregon the people of Oregon are entirely ignorant of it, and they are not an undiscerning people, either. It would be a calamity to the State if its railroad development should be arrested, but the Herald in fighting on the line of last summer, seems quite anxious to witness that result.

Another consideration why the Central Pacific Company may be interested in checking the growth of the present railroad system of this State, with a view to controlling it themselves at a future time, is furnished by the announcement that a new and independent line of railway is to be built from California through Southern Oregon and Southern Idaho to Ogden—an enterprise which comes in direct competition with the Central Pacific. It is expected that the road from this valley, after passing through Umpqua and Rogue river, would take a southeasterly course and unite with the proposed new road at some point in the south-east part of the State. This would fulfill the original design of our railroad system, as set forth by the Legislature of our State at the last two sessions. But if the Oregon and California Railroad can be stopped at the head of the Wallamet valley and embarrassed either by litigation or attacks on its credit so that no bonds can be sold the Central Pacific Company may be able after a time to get control of it or make a connection with it at the head of this valley by the so-called Pengra route. How prejudicial this would be to Oregon can be seen at a glance. To stop the progress of this road would be a terrible blow to the prosperity of the State, and would surely stop the progress of the west side road also. It is a suggestive coincidence that Mr. Elliott is supplied with funds to press his suits just at the time when the new enterprise to complete the Central Pacific from Salt Lake to California is started. It is suggestive, too, when we see the Herald, which contended for the Central Pacific's schemes last year, enter at once and with so much interest upon this new and covert attack on the [illegible] of the State. These incidents are almost conclusive as to the source whence the attack is instigated and the objects to be accomplished by it. The Herald is the consistent organ of the California corporation.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, May 30.—Wheat at Liverpool, [illegible]
Sailed—schooner Legal Tender, Petropaulovski.
Arrived—schooner Staghound, Victoria.

Private dispatches assert positively that Kern, Tulare, Fresno and Stanislaus counties have all elected Haight delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

There is unusual apathy evinced by citizens in the celebration of the coming 4th of July, and fears are entertained that the demonstration will be a partial failure from causes similar to those which produced the same result two years since.

The weather is fine and warm, and to-day one of the pleasantest of the season.

San Francisco May 30.—The Adamantine candle factory of Dail & Codington was burned by the fire in the western addition this morning.

Giancomo Campi of the Italian restaurant fell from the ladder leading up the face of the cliff at Yosemite yesterday and fractured his skull. The result of his injuries is unknown.

Addresses by Col Geo W Bowie and General Le Grange at Lone Mountain to-day were short and eloquent. At the close of Col. Bowie's address, the statue to the memory of Union soldiers of California was uncovered. It is not a very imposing monument, but the design is pronounced chaste and beautiful by every one, and the general effect is highly satisfactory.

The steamship Ajax from Portland has arrived.

Gov Haight's friends claim that they have 58 votes in the Convention without counting any of the San Francisco delegation, a portion of which is considered sure to go for him.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

Vallejo, May 30.—The citizens of Vallejo marched in the procession through our streets this morning, to the Mare Island ferry boat, and thence across to Mare Island to decorate the soldiers' graves. The day is observed as a holiday on Mare Island, all work being suspended for the occasion.

Suisun, May 30.—The Democratic Convention held here to-day unanimously declared in favor of Haight for Governor.

Los Angeles, May 30.—Yesterday, between 7 A M and 3 P M., a violent wind and rain storm prevailed throughout this county, doing serious damage to grape vines and vegetation.

The dwelling house of Major Bell, about one mile south of this city, was totally destroyed by fire last evening. Insured for $2 000.

NEVADA.

Virginia, Nev., May 30.—Decoration day was duly observed to-day by the Grand Army of the Republic and citizens. Ceremonies consisted of parade, decoration of graves, speeches, etc.

THE TERRITORIES.

A Walla Walla paper says that a prodigious number of new sewers are making their appearance there.

The total fall on the proposed railroad grade from Walla Walla to Wallula, a distance of 31½ miles, is 590 feet.

The Walla Walla Union says the immediate prospect before the farmers of that valley is not flattering. There will be great crops but no [illegible]

It is significantly said by an Arizona paper, in connection with the appointment of a military commander for that Territory, that all the additional troops specially needed is one man.

The Arizona Citizen bids good bye to Gen Stoneman without any real manifestation of sorrow, as may be seen by the following. Gregory, we see the curtain hide you with unalloyed pleasure and the most jovial contempt. Exit Stoneman.

OREGON.

Large numbers of emigrants from California continue to arrive in Rogue river valley.

A drove of 3,000 sheep, from Umpqua, passed through Jacksonville a few days ago, for the Goose Lake country.

Several horses have been stolen recently near Pendleton, Umatilla county. Four men are suspected, who are supposed to have decamped for Montana.

An Agricultural Association has been formed in Jackson county on a sound basis, and hereafter it is hoped that that county will have an annual Agricultural Fair.

Says the Walla Walla Union: Z F Moody of the Dalles, is now engaged in surveying the Umatilla Indian Reservation, a great portion of which is of a very superior quality of farming land. The reservation includes all the upper and better portion of Umatilla valley, and embraces all that portion lying between Wild Horse creek and McKay creek and the summit of the Blue Mountains. It is estimated that there is good land enough to make two thousand good farms of one hundred and sixty acres each.

Most of the Southern Democratic papers, and, for that matter, most of the Northern ones, scout the idea that there any dead issues. This is notably the case with those Democratic papers of this State which have spoken on the subject since the Vallandigham platform came out.

A Favorable Notoriety.—The good reputation and extended use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" for Coughs, Colds and Throat Diseases has caused the Troches to be extensively imitated. Obtain only the genuine "Brown's Bronchial Troches," and do not be influenced by those who make more profit by selling worthless imitations.

More than 500,000 people bear testimony to the wonderful curative effects of Dr Pierce's Alt Ext or Golden Medical Discovery. For palpitation or irregular action of the heart, all severe, acute or lingering coughs, and for "Liver Complaint" or "Biliousness" it is unequalled. Sold by all druggists.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY

OR

OREGON RHEUMATIC CURE!

HISTORY.

THIS REMEDY IS COMPOSED OF THE ACTIVE principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thaspium Cordatum Origanise, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.

It is the most sure and speedy cure for RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT, AND RHEUMATIC PAINS of all kinds that was ever introduced in the Materia Medica.

Read the following certificates of the above fact from several of the most distinguished citizens of Oregon.

Certificate from A. R. Shipley, Esq., special contributor to the Willamette Farmer and Secretary of the Oregon Horticultural Society.

Oswego, Or., March 28 1871.
Dr A M Loryea:—Some four weeks ago I was entirely prostrated with Rheumatism; in fact I was almost helpless. I sent to you for one 10 ounce bottle of the "Unk Weed Remedy" by the use of which I experienced almost immediate relief; and by the time the bottle was gone the Rheumatism was gone. From my own experience, and from what I have heard others say who have used the Unk Weed, I believe it to be a certain cure for Rheumatism. Yours respectfully, A R SHIPLEY.

Certificate from the Hon A J Dufur ex-President of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, and author of "Statistics of Oregon."

East Portland April 1, 1871.
Dr. A M Loryea & Co.—I was afflicted with a severe attack of Chronic Rheumatism; was confined to my bed most of the time from January to July, when I used the Unk Weed and it cured me up. A. J. DUFUR.

Certificate from Hon Gideon Tibbetts, a member of the City Council of East Portland.

East Portland, April 7, 1871.
Dr A. M. Loryea & Co.—Gents: This is to inform you that I have used your "Unk Weed Remedy" for Neuralgia and Rheumatic pains, and found relief from the use of only one bottle, and can recommend it to those in need of such a remedy. Yours, GIDEON TIBBETTS.

Certificate from Mr James Bybee, the celebrated stock grower and King of the Oregon Turf.

Sauvie's Island, January 14 1871.
To Dr. A M Loryea & Co.—This is to acknowledge the efficacy of your Unk Weed Remedy or Oregon Rheumatic Cure. I was afflicted for months with a very serious attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, and tried nearly all the so-called Rheumatic remedies without any relief perceivable. I then tried your Remedy, and its use resulted in the most happy effects—a perfect cure. Truly yours, JAMES BYBEE.

Certificate from Hon E L Quimby, ex County Commissioner of Multnomah county, Oregon.

East Portland, April 1, 1871.
Dr A M Loryea & Co.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy" and am satisfied it is a valuable medicine. It regulates and invigorates the system. This is my experience with the remedy. Truly yours, E L QUIMBY.

Certificate from Hon N H Lane, Pilot Commissioner of Oregon and a member of the City Council of East Portland.

East Portland April 19 1871.
Dr A. M. Loryea & Co.—I have been afflicted for several years with weakness in the back and wandering Rheumatic pains, accompanied by severe constipation. By the use of one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, I have been entirely relieved and I cheerfully recommend it as a most valuable and efficient remedy. NAT H LANE.

Certificate from the well known merchant O. W. Weaver, Esq.

The Dalles, May 23, 1871.
Dr A M Loryea & Co.—I have used the Unk Weed Remedy and can cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with Inflammatory Rheumatism. It cured me of that disease. My hands wrists, ankles, indeed, all my joints were swollen and very painful. O W WEAVER.

Certificate from the celebrated musician Prof Otto Vieuxtemps.

Oregon Musical Institute, Portland May 22, 1871.
Dr A M Loryea & Co.—I was attacked with severe Inflammatory Rheumatism, suffering great pain, and was so prostrated that I was unable to attend to my business. I used one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, and was entirely cured by it alone. OTTO VIEUXTEMPS.

Put up in 10 ounce bottles at $1 50 per bottle.

[WEDNE]SDAY MORNING, MAY 31, 1871.

CITY.

A RECRUIT.—We observed, yesterday an Indian bedecked in all the glory of the red paint, blanket and leggings, stalking leisurely around the city. "Lo" was evidently a "recruit" from some of the reservations. [illegible] condescended to regard the evidences [illegible] time, in the shape of substantial brick and [illegible], with naught but a "sarkastikle" [illegible] matter of course. In his lordly mien, [illegible] tread, he seemed to spurn the works [illegible] "pale face," and to spurn his puny [illegible]; for the old copper skin would not [illegible] the sidewalks, but stalked independently [illegible] center of the street. His "faithful [illegible]" bear him company, nor his patient [illegible] dignified by his lordship with the title of [illegible]. Poets would say that he would have [illegible] subject for the pen of fancy or the pen [illegible] but we opine that he would have [illegible] after subject for "One Armed Brown," [illegible] could only plant his visnal orbs [illegible] phiz" Lo would be a prize in that [illegible]

GRAND LODGE.—We learn from Mr C Beal, [illegible] T, that the Grand Lodge I O G T, [illegible] at Salem on the 15th of next month. [illegible] body will meet on Tuesday, and [illegible] through four days, until Friday evening. [illegible] desirable to secure as large a rep[resentation] as possible from all the subordinate [lodges]. On Saturday, the 17th, the State Tem[perance] Convention will convene and continue in [session] through the day. Mr Beal informs us [that the] Order is in a very prosperous condition [illegible] increase in the membership has been ac[complished] the past year. A creditable, and substan[tial] [illegible] is given to the organ of the Order—[the] Templar—by the advocates of total ab[stinence]. That paper now has a circulation of [illegible]

[illegible]—A jury trial was held on Monday, [before Justice] Snyder's court, in one of the cases [illegible] certain persons, formerly employed by [the O] C R. R. Co, were plaintiffs and the [company] the defendant. After a hearing of the [case] the jury rendered a verdict to the effect that [the persons] so employed were entitled to the sum [of] $[illegible] per day, minus sixty cents for board. [Justice] Snyder rendered a decision in [other cases] before him, involving sim[ilar questions] [as] the preceding case, in which [it was held] that the former employees [were entitled to] $[illegible] per day with interest from [illegible] no reduction was made for board.

[illegible]—Yesterday, as the steamer [illegible] moved away from the wharf, the [illegible] also left the O. S. N. Co.'s wharf, [illegible] middle of the river and waited for [the] [illegible] to come down opposite, sig[nifying] in a bantering manner, that she wished to [race]. The Annie Stewart was not slow [to] accept the challenge, and the two rival boats [passed] around the bend of the river at the same [time], each fully intent on defeating the other. [The result] of the race we have not yet learned, [but it] would be but a fair presumption to suppose [that from] the superior size, model and power, the "[Ann]y Annie" was the victor in the chase.

[REG]ULAR TRIP.—The fine steamer Annie [Stewart], Capt. Wm. Turnbull, started yesterday [from] her wharf at the foot of Washing[ton street], for Astoria. Hereafter she will make [regular tr]ips between this city and Astoria. [The] Annie Stewart is a fine, large boat, with [illegible] and freight accommodations, [and] has been refitted and repaired throughout, [and] will be able to meet the demands of [the] travel on the lower river. It is thought [by] many that in point of speed she will not be [behind] any of the boats plying on the same [route].

[TO BE] LAUNCHED.—The hull of the new stern [wheel] [illegible], now in process of construction at [the O. S. N.] Co.'s dock yard, will be launched [illegible] at 10.30. A large crowd will doubt[less be present] to witness the new craft "take to [the water]" as well as the usual ceremonies on [such occasi]ons. As yet she has not been desig[nated by] title. It is the present intention to [illegible] to take the line by the first of [illegible] will be the largest stern wheel boat [illegible] when completed.

[illegible] Old Sol, whom vulgarly minded [people call] the sun, gave this lower sphere a few [illegible] [yest]erday, by way of renewing his [old] and nearly forgotten acquaintance. Since [illegible] thing directly to mind and refreshing [illegible] the "squint" alluded to was not very [illegible] as the thermometer got up on its dignity [illegible] [illegible] 45 deg during most of the day.

[THE] STREETS.—Very many of the back [streets], which have been innocent of anything [illegible] yet, are so muddy as to greatly im[pede travel], on account of the protracted rains. [With] the existing state of the weather, (if it [should] only continue), the mud will soon change [to] [illegible] more agreeable—dust.

The river continues to steadily rise [illegible] lands lying on the eastern side are pretty [illegible]. The ferry lands "high and [dry]" at the foot, or rather at the top, of Stark [street]. The near approach of the waters render [illegible] removals from low basements [along] the water front necessary.

[illegible]—[illegible] were engaged yesterday [in ma]king the preparatory steps toward the re[moval] of the old wooden building at the corner [of First] and Washington streets. The unseemly gap [caused] by its disappearance will soon be filled by [a new] building of more pretentious proportions [and] appearance.

[ALLEGH]ANIAN ALPINE SINGERS.—At a special re[quest] [the] [illegible] will give a second concert at [the] [illegible] Theater this evening. A fine pro[gramme] will be offered. Let there be a full [house]. The concert will be a novel musical treat, [and] well worth the price of admission.

[illegible].—The wharves presented an appear[ance] [illegible] a cemetery in a healthy season, [yester]day. The contrast was very marked in [illegible] with the unusual bustle and activity [illegible] so rife last week. No steamer is now [illegible]

[SUPER]INTENDENT.—Mr. John G. Nation, [who has] long been Superintendent of the Willam[ette Iron] Works, has been tendered, and has ac[cepted], the same position at the Oregon Iron [Works]. He assumed charge on last Monday [illegible]

[ENLARGEM]ENT.—It is the intention of Messrs. Her[illegible], the proprietors of the Catholic [illegible], to shortly add to their establishment a [illegible] to be used in connection with that jour[nal]. This is most certainly an indication of pros[perity].

[APPOINT]ED.—Mr. H J Twomey, of this city, [has] received the appointment of Notary [Public] from Governor Grover. At present there [seems] to be a sufficient number of Notaries to [supply] all legal demands in that line, in Portland

[illegible] – Several of these interesting cases—[owing to] the great scarcity of the article—were [disposed] of yesterday before his Honor, Judge [illegible]. They were variously fined, reprimanded [or sent] to quarters at the city's expense.

[illegible].—The work of receiving cargo [on board] the ship Panama, now lying at Mc[Cra]ken's wharf, progresses but slowly, owing to [the diffi]culty met with in obtaining wheat. Her [cargo] is not more than half completed.

[TO BE] SOLD.—The little side-wheel steamer [illegible] will be sold by Sheriff Bills in satis[faction] of a judgment for indebtedness, on Thurs[day], June 8th. She is at present tied up at the [foot of] [illegible] street.

[FUNER]AL.—A large number of sympathising [friends] and acquaintances were in attendance [yesterday] at the funeral obsequies of Mrs Bon[illegible]. The cortege comprised over forty vehicles.

[NEW] NOTARY.—Gov Grover has recently [appointed] P. Ferry, Esq , of this city, a Nota[ry Public] [in] and for the city of Portland and [county] of Multnomah.

DECORATION DAY

THE DAY AS OBSERVED BY BAKER POST NO 1, G A R—ADDRESSES BY PROF ROGERS, GEN SAXTON, MR ELIOT AND GEN. HAMILTON—DECORATION CEREMONIES.

The ceremonies of "Decoration Day" were observed yesterday evening for the first time in Oregon, by Baker Post No. 1, Grand Army of the Republic. A special meeting for that purpose was held in their hall, corner of First and Madison streets, and about two hundred people were present including several ladies. The hall was tastefully fitted up and decorated. A flag looped in the form of a canopy, stretched across the platform, on which was seated the Commander of the Post, Prof Rogers, the orator of the evening, Gen. Saxton and Rev Mr. Eliot, invited guests and the Post Adjutant and Quartermaster. Directly in front of the Commander, stood a stack of muskets, ornamented with boquets and wreaths. A little in front of the stack of arms stood an altar on which was erected a beautiful marble monument; and in the center of the room another altar stood, over which was spread a flag, and on it was an open Bible and cross swords. Boquets to be used in the decoration ceremonies stood on each officer's desk.

THE ASSEMBLY

At a little past 8 o'clock, the Commander, C E. Illsley, took his chair and directed the assembly to be sounded, when the regulation army assembly call was sounded upon the bugle. At this the officers of the Post put on side arms and took their seats, as in a regular post meeting, and the Commander called to seats with the gavel.

Messrs Hitchcock, Buchanan and Stinson, sang to an organ accompaniment, the stirring and sterling piece called the "Rock of Liberty." Prayer was then offered by Rev. T. L Eliot, and the Commander declared the Post assembled in open session for the purposes indicated in the call.

ADDRESS

Prof W. H. Rogers being introduced, delivered a very happy and excellent address, appropriate to the occasion and day. He reviewed briefly the purposes of the late war as conducted by the United States Government, the great question it had solved and settled forever, and paid a most eloquent tribute to the soldiers living and to the memory of the soldiers whose lives were sacrificed in the great struggle between patriotism on the one side and treason on the other. His remarks evidently met a hearty response from the hearts of his audience, for when he retired he was applauded roundly.

The Glee Club sang "The bright flag of America," after which came the

DECORATION CEREMONIES,

Performed under the lead of the Department Commander. At the sound of the gavel, the entire audience rose to their feet. The officers of the Post, each taking in his hand a boquet of flowers, advanced and formed an arch around the altar and monument. The Department Commander then recited briefly the purpose of the assembly to be to renew the memories of the dead comrades of the army, to pledge anew their devotion to the country, to decorate and consecrate with flowers the monument erected in honor of their brothers, friends and comrads who now sleep the sleep of the brave, the patriotic and the honored dead. During this recital, flowers were cast by all upon the altar and monument. At the close all the officers marched once around the monument, strewing flowers and each said, "This in memory of our dead comrades." The march of the circle being completed, all faced inward, and gave the military salute with the hand, then dispersing to their seats, as before. The ceremony was simple but impressive.

ADDRESS OF GEN SAXTON

Gen Rufus Saxton, a veteran of the war, was next introduced. He was greeted with enthusiastic applause, which was renewed from time to time as patriotic and eloquent words fell from his lips. He warmly commended the practice which had been adopted by the surviving soldiers, of decorating annually the graves of their fallen comrades, as a custom or ceremony admirably calculated to not only foster one of the finest sentiments of the heart, but to cultivate devotion to country and the spirit of fraternity among all men. His address contained the relation of several touching incidents of the war, and the search of afflicted survivors among the nameless graves of the battlefield cemeteries for kindred and friends. The old veteran sat down amid a storm of applause.

REV MR. ELIOT,

Who had himself borne a musket in the service of his country, was next introduced. He made a brief speech, congratulating his fellow survivors of the war upon the character of the Government they had nobly rescued from the assaults of treason and planted upon foundations which promised to be as enduring as any merely human institution could be. He thought it proper that these ceremonials should be universal among the people and perpetuated as long as the nation should endure. After Mr Eliot,

GEN. HAMILTON,

A veteran of the M[exican] war, was called up. He said that though he had not been called upon to participate in the last war, he had been a deeply interested spectator, and had watched the course of events with an anxiety as deep perhaps as that of most of those who had done active service. He was much pleased with the object of this meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the touching ceremonies he had witnessed in commemoration of the dead. He wished the organization Godspeed and expressed the hope that he should witness a ceremony on the next annual Decoration Day which should be participated in by thousands instead of hundreds.

AN INCIDENT OF THE MEETING.

The members of the Washington Guard paid the occasion and the Post, the handsome compliment of turning out nearly the entire strength of the company in uniform, and marching in a body into the hall. It was a graceful act gracefully done, and though unexpected to the Post, was duly appreciated by the members of that organization.

THE CLOSING.

The exercises closed with the singing of "Our Union Forever," the audience joining in the chorus. The Commander then dismissed the assembly. Altogether the ceremonies were interesting, and creditable to the Post. The guests were profuse in their expressions of the pleasure the occasion afforded them.

DEATH BY POISONING.—A man by the name of R. Nelson died last evening in this city from the effects of an overdose of morphine. He came to this city on the last steamer, and opened, a few days since, a small saloon at No. 173 Front street, between Main and Salmon. For several days past, he had been indulging quite freely in strong drink. Yesterday morning he expressed a determination to reform. To quiet his overwrought nerves, he administered a dose of morphine. He either was totally ignorant of the quantity required for a dose, or else made a mistake. Through one of these causes, he took twenty-four grains of the drug, about 10 o'clock A. M., and retired to bed. No one was aware of his dangerous condition, when discovered, about 4 o'clock P. M., he was in a dying condition. Medical aid was brought immediately to his assistance, but in vain. By five o'clock he was a corpse. Nothing is known of the unfortunate man, except that he is a total stranger, a German by birth, and aged about 30 years. Drs. H. A. Bodman and J C Ryan were summoned by the Coroner, T. J. Dryer, to examine the body. After a post mortem examination, the physicians gave their opinion that the deceased came to his death from congestion of the brain, caused by an overdose of morphine, together with excessive drinking. The following is the verdict of the jury summoned by the Coroner:

We, the jury, find that the deceased, whose name we learn to be R. Nelson, came to his death by an over dose of morphine, administered through a mistake.

(Signed,) P Levin (Foreman), J. S Daley, P C. Murdey, George E. Gilbert, William Aldridge, H. J. Twomey.

BOUND OVER.—George Meloche, who was tried yesterday before Judge Lewis on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, was held by the court to appear at the June term of the Circuit Court in the sum of $500. Meloche gave the necessary bonds and was discharged.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—Members of the above order in good standing, or holding cards from subordinate Lodges, are requested to meet at Druid's Hall at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization.

GOOD PRICE.—Judge Strong sold a few days since a Pathfinder colt, aged four weeks, for the neat little sum of $200 in gold coin. The purchaser was Mr. A. H. Johnson of this city.

SPECIAL MEETING.—There will be a special meeting of the members of the Emmet Guard at their Armory this evening. All members are requested to be in attendance.

CONVENES.—The County Court, Judge Hamilton, will convene on next Monday at 10 o'clock A M.

REMOVAL.—S L. Stone, dealer in Variety Goods, Cigars and Tobacco, has removed from his old stand, corner First and Washington streets, to 103 First street, next door to Post Office. He has added considerably to his old stock and is fully prepared to wait upon his old customers, as well as the public in general. m29d1w

Burnett's Cologne—Best in America

You Haven't Tried Them.

Victim of debility, who is responsible for your feebleness? Not yourself you will say for you've done all you could to cure it. That's a mistake on your part.

You haven't tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Gloomy dyspeptic, with an uneasy stomach and a world weary face, of course you don't think yourself responsible for your own torments. But you are. It's easy to see from your condition that you haven't tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Billious sufferer, it is not your fault you think, that your symptoms grow worse day by day. Blue pill doesn't do you any good. Very likely. But you can be brought round for all that.

Why haven't you tried Hostetter's Bitters?

Friend on whom fever and ague alternately blows hot and cold, and whose brain seems to be bursting with the effects of some powerful drug, do you assume the responsibility? O, no! You've taken pills of quinine, and all the regulation medicines. What could you do more? One thing more—the very thing that would have exempted you from all the pangs that now rack you.

You have never tried Hostetter's Bitters.

Nervous invalid, what have you to say? You plead that you have taken all the nervines of the pharmacopœia. If they have done you no good, it is not your fault. You are not responsible. Wrong, all wrong. You have in reality, nobody to blame but yourself.

Why haven't you tried Hostetter's Bitters?

For all the above-named complaints, the Bitters are absolute specifics.

John.

I stand behind his elbow chair,
My soft hand rests upon his hair—
Hair whose silver is dearer to me
Than all the gold of earth could be;
And my eyes of brown
Look tenderly down
On John my John

The firelight leaps, and laughs and warms—
Wraps us both in its ruddy arms,
John, as he sits in the hearth-glow red,
Me with my hands on his dear old head—
Encircling us both
Like a ring of troth,
Me and my John

His form has lost its early grace,
Wrinkles rest on his kindly face;
His brow no longer is smooth and fair,
For Time has left its autograph there;
But a noble prize,
In my loving eyes,
Is John, my John.

"My love," he says, and lifts his hands,
Browned by the suns of other lands,
In tender clasp on mine to lay;
"How long ago was our wedding day!"
I smile through my tears
And say "Years and years,
My John, Dear John"

We say no more, the firelight glows;
Each of us muse, on what she knows,
My hands drop down in a mute caress—
Each throb of my heart is a wish to bless
With a wife's best worth
The heart and the hearth
Of John, my John

Interesting Statements by Bismarck.

HIS OPINION OF NAPOLEON—RECITAL OF IMPORTANT MATTERS OF HISTORY.

[Berlin Letter (April 28,) to the N. Y. Tribune]

Bismarck likes to give his ideas to the public in the way of conversations, or rather of a friendly chat, with an apparent indifference as if he spoke of sporting matters or of common gossip. The other day I was one of the guests of the festival which the city of Berlin gave to the Imperial Diet, to the Court, foreign diplomatists, and men of science or art. Bismarck formed the center of attraction, he was in his best humor, and had a hearty word for his old acquaintances, or a witty remark and a good joke for those who were introduced to him. It was my good fortune to be present when he approached a group of liberal representatives. One of them asked [illegible] the prospect of the return of our [illegible] from France. Bismarck availed himself of the occasion to make a clear statement of his relations to Louis Napoleon as well as to the present French Government. After [illegible] about the same ideas which he [illegible] embodied in his above-quoted [illegible] April 24, he entered fully into a [illegible] respecting Louis Napoleon, of [illegible] repeat to [illegible] those portions [illegible] history. [illegible] he said is [illegible] hesitation, his [illegible] two [illegible] on, his [illegible] to a quick [illegible] is necessary to choose between [illegible] he is a Hamlet like character. [illegible] hue of resolution is sicklied [illegible] pale cast of thought.' In the [illegible] of his reign his several great political [illegible] were redeemed only by an army [illegible] hundred thousand men. If it had [illegible] for them he would hardly have been a [illegible] man himself. His Crimean war was in opposition to French policy, sentiment, and traditions. He ought to have se[illegible] alliance, which, immediately after the capture of Sevastopol, was offered [illegible] Orloff, but he could not make [illegible] and thus lost one of the best opportunities of [illegible] not beating us. An [illegible] could easily discover his weakness in the Italian war, the affair at Magenta was not at all creditable to him; the army, [illegible] good what he had failed in accomplishing. In one of my interviews with Napoleon I told him that he had no better friend than [illegible] and no sincerer ally than we; that [illegible] to have peace, the two nations [illegible] separated by antagonistic interests [illegible] only depended upon him to make [illegible] honorable and suitable to both [illegible] he stared at me as if he had never seen me before, shook his head, and said nothing, but I was really in earnest. [illegible] the final settlement with Austria [illegible] any longer be avoided, it was of the highest importance to me to ascertain Napoleon's views and objects. At that time, [illegible] enter into an alliance with him, but I wanted to be secured against [illegible] while we had the Austrian [illegible] alluded to the subject [illegible] at Biarritz but could not get an answer [illegible] a consent, nor an indirect [illegible] from [illegible] It was, however, not difficult to [illegible] he supposed the Austrians would beat us and for this reason he had a [illegible] for me. When [illegible] took leave of him he said, 'I wish you success,' but with a bitter-sweet expression as if he would say, 'I wish you a sound thrashing, [illegible] Ihr barbarische Klopp [illegible].' Even after the surrender at Sedan," continued Bismarck, "I negotiated to [illegible] with Napoleon. There were many combinations by which he could have become master of the Paris [illegible], and, as well as we had made [illegible] unmake it. My only object in view was [illegible] to have a legitimate [illegible] to treat with. We had not the least interest to carry on a long war. Thiers and Favre were very supercilious in the beginning. We had to put a damper on their self[illegible] and make them more pliable by [illegible] them that we were the masters of the [illegible]. The remedy in this respect was a good one, but Napoleon could not muster [illegible] either to refuse or to accept [illegible] He knew very well that in September [illegible] could have bought the peace at a [illegible] we subsequently demanded [illegible] and that we would not have [illegible] of all the territory which we have just taken, but nevertheless he wavered. The negotiations between Versailles and Wilhelmshohe lasted from the day of Napoleon's arrival at that castle until the signing of the preliminaries with the French Republic. On the noon of the same day on the evening of which I signed the preliminary treaty of peace with Thiers and Favre, and in the presence of the latter, I received a note addressed in a lady's handwriting. In opening it I found that it was written by Clement Duvernois, Napoleon's secret agent, he informed me that his master now was willing to accept our terms. It was, however, too late. I sent word to Duvernois to call on me in the evening. Late in the afternoon I arrived at an understanding with Thiers, and when Duvernois came I told him I had just signed the treaty with the former." I need not give any commentary on these words, but I [illegible] for their correctness.

[illegible] PINS.—There are eight pin factories in the United States, whose annual production [illegible] packs each pack containing 3,360 [illegible] al of 6,720,000,000 pins. One man[illegible] agent in Boston, says the Bulletin, [illegible] six months from 700 to 1,000 cases [illegible] each case containing 672,000 pins, [illegible] factory he represents turns out eight tons of pins per week. Hair-pins are jobbed by the cask. There is but one factory that produces them. They turn out fifty tons per month. The machine that cuts and bends the wire makes 360 hair pins per minute, ready for japanning. Yankee pins are salable in nearly every city of the world, and the production and consumption increases each year about ten per cent. A very large percentage of the hair pins in general use are imported. The tariff does not protect this item of American industry, hence the public pay for them just about one-third more than they are worth. Yankee enterprise is now seeking a [illegible] more rapid manufacture, and a more desirable metal or substance, and in this way successfully compete with foreign makes and cut down the cost.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

HAS ACQUIRED A WORLD-WIDE FAME.

All of my preparations are meritorious. A period of twenty years has PROVED THIS to be the case.

See remarks made by Benjamin Travers F. R. C. S. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

See REMARKS of the GREAT CHEMISTS AND PILL MEN OF AMERICA,

WM. R. WARNER & CO,
154 North 3d st., Philadelphia, Pa.

H. T. HELMBOLD—ESTEEMED FRIEND, We congratulate you on having the handsomest, and at the same time the MOST EFFECTIVE PILL that we have ever known for the purpose intended.

WM. R. WARNER & CO

H. T. HELMBOLD will remark in conclusion, that his remedies are the result of long and careful study. The Fluid Extracts have been before the public twenty years, the sale of them in that time proves their value. All have been benefitted by them who followed my instructions, and to-day they stand UNEQUALLED in the extent of their sale and UNSURPASSED by any Medicament in the Dispensatory of the United States, not excepting a single HERB, ROOT, PLANT, or scientific preparation.

Pharmaceutical I claim all mine to be, and have never patented a single one.

To dispel any impression or prejudice that might exist in the minds of many against my Preparations from the publicity given, through advertising, and that I am and have been a druggist for a period of 20 years, and more conclusively to prove this, see letter.

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the world]

November 4, 1854

I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

ALL STAND ON THEIR MERITS.

The Pill I have thought of offering to the afflicted for ten years.

They are now perfect, and I shall stake my time, money, and fame on their effectiveness. The inviting style in which the Pill itself is made, the bottle, label, wrapper—all show with what care they have been prepared. After examination, no English or French preparation will show greater care, and I am really proud of them.

Instead of the nauseous-tasting, carelessly prepared Pills vended generally and put up in wooden boxes and made generally or offered by those having no experience as physicians, druggists or manufacturers of medicines, test the medicines offered by your obedient servant
